

The 1951 film Quo Vadis where a Roman Commander challenged the tyrannical leadership of Nero (and fell in love with a Christian slave) is not exactly what we had in mind when we chose this title:

Water Diplomacy: Quo Vadis?

But, we know our problems are complex and solutions are contingent! We expect our interdisciplinary pursuits to move us away from “old” Either-Or Paradigm and help us develop “new” Sticky Ideas for Actionable Outcome

And we all may

Fall in Love with Water Diplomacy too!
